

OCTOBER 2024

VIEW FROM THE EAST

My Brothers,

Fall is finally here! The kids are back in school, the leaves are turning, and our lodge is back in session. I always look forward to this time of year—the cooler air, the scent of apple cider, pumpkins on the porch, and the beauty of the changing leaves. It's the start of something new, and it feels great to be together again.

Seeing everyone at lodge to kick off the second half of the year was such a highlight for me. There's something special about the fellowship we share. It's a reminder of why we come together as Masons—building bonds and spending time with one another in this great fraternity.

We have a lot to look forward to in the coming months, and I'm excited about the events we have planned. Whether it's the upcoming Fellowcraft or Entered Apprentice degrees, I hope you'll make it a point to join us. These degree nights are special moments—not just for the candidates, but for all of us as we support and welcome new brothers into our lodge.

As we approach the Jewish New Year, I'd like to extend warm wishes to our Jewish brethren for a joyful and peaceful Rosh Hashana. In observance of this important holiday, our lodge will not meet on October 2nd. May this New Year bring blessings of health, happiness, and prosperity to all who celebrate.

As we get closer to the holidays and the year's end, let's make the most of our time together. Your presence at these events means a lot. It's not just about filling seats—it's about strengthening the bonds that tie us together. So, mark your calendars, bring a friend, and join us in continuing the traditions and values we hold dear. VIEW FROM THE WEST

Brothers,

We are currently gearing up to have a series of Degrees in quick succession – a Fellowcraft on October 16th and an Entered Apprentice almost immediately after. While those are currently the only ones for which we have even tentative times for, it is not outside the realm of possibility to assume that they will likely be followed by a second Fellowcraft and then a Master Mason. In-between these, our Lodge

Thanksgiving, a proposed Game Night, Brother Dufresne's "Masons in the Civil War" presentation, and a variety of other events happening both within our Lodge and without. This is shaping up to be a very busy second half of the year.

But in thinking specifically about the upcoming Degrees, I wanted to take a moment to say something specifically about the ritual, particularly to anybody who's performing it for the first time or is uncomfortable performing ritual in general. You do not need to worry about being word perfect. This is not an accuracy competition and the candidates who will be receiving the Degree, for whom this Ritual is truly for, will neither recognize nor care that you used "a" instead of "the" or "that" instead of "which" or some other common synonym in place of one of the more archaic words our ritual can sometimes be peppered with. The important part is that the overall idea behind the Ritual be understood. If you do truly forget the next bit of your line, there will always be somebody ready to prompt you (usually up in the East), so you need only to look to them to give you the next few words. And if you do truly omit a sentence or miss a critical piece, there will always be a Brother or two (usually Past Masters) who will come find you at the end of the Meeting who will let you know. Please be mindful that they are not telling you this to try to belittle you or make you feel bad, they are simply letting you know what you have to improve on.

Fraternally,

Benjamin G. Stern

Senior Warden

VIEW FROM THE SOUTH

My Brothers,

As the fall season arrives, we look forward to the return of our formal Masonic activities, meetings, and events. After a restful summer, it's time to come together again in the spirit of Brotherhood and get involved in all that our Lodge has to offer. There are many upcoming opportunities to participate, engage, and strengthen our bond.

We have a packed schedule of events to look forward to this season, starting with the Grand Lodge Semi-Annual Communication on October 19, where we can use help with our Cosmo Store. This is an excellent chance to gather with Brothers from across the state, discuss important matters, and share in the fellowship that makes our craft so unique.

Additionally, we have a variety of other Lodge events in the works, including our Lodge Thanksgiving, and Games Night, and we encourage everyone to join in and make the most of these occasions. Finally, I would like to take this moment to extend warm wishes to our Jewish Brothers. As Rosh Hashana approaches, I want to wish you a Happy New Year. May you be inscribed in the Book of Life, and may you have an easy and meaningful fast during Yom Kippur.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Fraternally,

Bro. Goe

Joseph K. Fried

Junior Warden

VIEW FROM THE SECRETARY'S CHAIR

My Brothers,

The month of October is a clear sign of summer being over and the leaves start to change with beautiful colors all up and down of New England. With that also comes Halloween and costumes and Trick or Treating for that wonderful candy.

For our lodge it is going to be very busy, so please try and join us for the fellowship and camaraderie. If you are planning on attending the Semi-Annual Grand Lodge Session, please don't forget to bring your dues card.

I would like to wish all of our Jewish brothers a happy and healthy New Year.

L'shana Tova

Just a reminder to those that have not paid their 2024 lodge dues. Please remit as soon as possible so that I can keep my bookkeeping up to date. In just a few short weeks next year's dues bills will be going out.
